A WONDER WORKER

MARVELOUS DISCOVERY FOR THE CURE OF ALL FORMS OF CONSTIPATION—NOT A HABIT BUT A CURE
—YOU DECREASE THE DOSE UNTIL CURED.

After many years of study and practice a physician has discovered a cure for constipation. It is called Chase Constipation Tablet.
"I do not mean," said the physician to several of his colleagues announcing his success, "I do not mean just another pill that breeds the habit. My remedy is a cure. By gently forcing all the digestive organs to perform their functions it restores them all to health and strength."

"THE MORE, THE LESS."

"The more you take the less you need until you need none—for you are cured.
My effort all along was to avoid the evil of the ordinary remedy which pampers the organs already weak and so makes the patient a slave to the pill. Remember—nature expects every organ to do its duty."
Physicians have long recognized the fact that constipation is at the bottom of nearly every disease. It saps all energy and makes life a burden; it opens the doors to all evil germs and makes the body too weak to resist them.

"THE VELVET WORKER."

This new discovery is in small tablets, easily taken, and they are packed in watch-shape bottles which fit the vest pocket. The tablet is mild, all vegetable, never grips or injures the most delicate organs. But it does the work! So naturally and soothingly they stimulate and regulate and strengthen that they have been nicknamed "The Little Velvet Workers."

Don't shuffle along with this great burden! Be healthy, be strong, be happy.

ODD METHODS OF EXERCISE.

The Man Who Goes Out Only at Night—Another Who Walks Only with the Wind

Most people who have passed their first youth discover that some particular form of exercise suits them better than any other and often end by becoming devoted to that special exercise. In a few cases, hobbies of this kind develop in such peculiar fashion as to be worthy of record.

An example in point is that of a well-known Londoner recently retired from the active management of an enormous business which is still in existence and undertakes contracts for almost every Government in the world. This gentleman when residing in his London house gets up early, takes a bath, then goes to bed again for two hours. He rises a second time, partakes of light refreshments and then puts on very heavy clothes. Though he has splendid carriages of his own, an ordinary four-wheel cab is called and waits at the door. It is the butler's duty to find out the exact direction of the wind, and when this has been ascertained the gentleman gets into the cab and drives as near as may be exactly into the eye of the wind for a distance of precisely two miles. He then gets out and walks home with the wind at his back at a measured pace, the cab following close behind.

This same gentleman has at his country home an English walking track precisely two miles long. At certain distances are small rest houses, in each of which is to be found a goodly stock of umbrellas and mackintoshes, as well as refreshments, solid and liquid. He himself walks round this track every morning and expects all his guests to do the same. If it rains they are, of course, always within reach of shelter and can either wait till the rain ceases or continue under cover of mackintosh or umbrella.

Another wealthy Londoner, who is perhaps one of the busiest men alive, declares that he has no time for taking ordinary exercise sufficient to keep him in proper health and condition. He has, however, discovered a substitute. Every morning he is driven to the house of a well-known electrical specialist and there receives half an hour of electrical massage. This, he declares, is worth two hours of any other form of exercise, and his appearance seems to confirm his statement.

There are instances of men whose only exercise is taken in the hours of darkness. An eccentric millionaire who has a villa at Cannes, on the Riviera, fears the light of day as he would the plague owing to a wife's prophecy, and walks out only at night, a closed and shuttered carriage always in attendance him till the dreaded dawn.
A wealthy American, Mr. John Kam-mer, who lives near Detroit, has had a treadmill fitted in his house. The story is that many years ago he was imprisoned for an offence of which he was innocent. He found the treadmill such a splendid form of exercise that after he was released he had one constructed for his private use, and every day takes two half-hours upon the machine. He declares that there is nothing like it for keeping down weight.—Tit-Bits.

Traced by Richmond Express Agent.

It is said that H. M. Kendall, of Richford, expressed regret at that place, is the man to be credited for tracing the packages of stolen property taken from East Fairfield last October by "Connecticut Billy," who was killed at Shelton.
Seeing an account in The Messenger of the finding of the pension check of E. C.
Colburn, which was part of the property stolen, he remembered sending this package at that time from his office to James Graham, New York City. He notified the authorities who took the matter up.

ABOUT THE STATE.

Items of Interest Gleaned From Our Exchanges.

There has not been a burial in the Barre Center cemetery since last spring, or in about eight months.

Representative David A. Foster of Vermont has accepted an invitation to speak at the banquet of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery in Boston the night of the 22nd.

M. H. Buckham, president of the University of Vermont delivered an address at the dinner of the eastern New York Alumni association of that institution, held in Shenectady, N. Y., Thursday evening.

Word has been received from South Franklin, Mass., that E. J. Prouty, of Newport, who suffered a badly miltilated arm a short time ago, is able to be about and will have the full use of his arm and fingers in time.

A hearing was held at Bellows Falls Thursday before the state board of railroad commissioners to listen to reasons why Bartonsville should have a new station as is asked for by a petition of the citizens of that town. Their decision will be rendered at a later date.

Mrs. Julia C. R. Dorr, of Rutland, Vermont, poetess, was 81 years old February 13.—She received numerous gifts and congratulations from her Rutland associates and relatives. The Fortnightly Club of the Congregational church of which Mrs. Dorr was president for many years, sent her several plants in full bloom.

A. P. Hutton, of Bethel, will reach the nineteenth anniversary of his birth February 23. He was born in the famous cold season of 1816, when there were snow and frost every month of the year.
Mr. Hutton retains the vigor of his mind and body to a remarkable extent and is now almost daily on the streets.
The citizens of Bethel Falls had occasion to find out that their opera house does not have the proper arrangements for getting out quickly in case of fire last Tuesday evening during a play.
A piano lamp became overturned and a slight blaze followed, which created some alarm at the time. It was soon attended but it was easily seen that if a panic ever did result from any happening at the opera house there would be difficulty in getting out.

Burlington high school won a very rough basketball contest with the People's academy team of Morrisville at the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium in Burlington on Friday evening. The teams were tied at the end of the first half but in the last half the Burlington boys secured a basket from the floor with another from the foul line while their opponents did not secure a point. The game closed with the score 18 to 15 in favor of the Burlington lads.

Matthew Van Alstyne, president of the Albany (N. Y.) Automobile Club, has announced that the tour of the club will start from the Capital city Thursday, June 21, and that during the trip Rutland, Vt., Keene, N. H., and Boston and Springfield, Mass., will be visited.
The tour will last six days. Thirteen automobiles took part in the tour last year and it is expected that the number this year will be increased to twenty-five or more.

One of the old residents of White River Junction recalls the month of February twenty-five years ago as being colder than the present month has been thus far, and affording better sleighing.
He says that the snow began falling about Thanksgiving day the year before and sleighing was good until April 4 following. There was a slight rain in January, just enough to make the roads slippery in some places, and that was the nearest approach to a thaw until the snow melted in April.

A special meeting of the stockholders of the Chase mills at Fall River, will be held on Feb. 22nd, to see if the stockholders will ratify and confirm the purchase of the directors, subject to the approval of the stockholders of the Arlington cotton mills at Burlington Vermont. The plant of the Burlington cotton mills contains about 30,000 spindles and includes a very suitable water power. The directors say that it is not

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a Godsend to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes, and feel like walking three more.
It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at the Red Cross Pharmacy. Price 50c.

The intention of the directors to increase the cash capital of the stock of the Chase mills as this purchase can be financed without calling on the stockholders for an assessment. The directors are of the idea that the purchase of these mills, and unanimously recommend that their action in the matter be ratified and confirmed.
